Detailed terms and conditions of the service

When authorizing in the services included in “Yandex Plus” it is necessary to use Yandex ID to which the subscriber number (or broadband login) is linked and to which the subscription is made;

Connection of free subscription “Yandex Plus” is available only once for each subscriber;

Free subscription expiration date: 60 days from the date of connection;

Upon expiration of the free Yandex Plus subscription, a paid subscription (9,999 soums for 30 days) is automatically activated;

A paid subscription is connected with an auto-renewal feature;

During the validity of the free subscription “Yandex Plus”, connection of a paid subscription is not possible;

If the subscription fee is successfully charged, the subscription will be assigned with an expiration date of 30 days from the date of assignment. If there are insufficient funds on the personal account to automatically assign the subscription, the subscription will automatically go into a pending payment state and will be automatically renewed for the next 30 days as soon as the subscriber’s account has sufficient funds to pay for it. If the monthly fee is successfully debited, the subscription expiration date will be set from the date of the last assignment.

In case a paid subscription is deactivated, automatic renewal and subscription fee writing off will be terminated, while all terms and conditions of the Yandex Plus service will remain available until the deactivated subscription expires. Internet traffic when using Yandex Go, Yandex Music, Bookmate and Kinopoisk applications will be charged according to the subscriber’s tariff plan, or the traffic will be debited from the balance of the existing Internet package provided for everything.

Yandex Plus service is available to Prepaid subscribers only in active status;

When using “Yandex Go”, “Yandex Music”, “Bookmate” and “Kinopoisk” applications in roaming, Internet traffic will be charged according to the zonal roaming tariffication;

Within the framework of the “Yandex Plus” service, when using “Yandex Go”, “Yandex Music”, “Bookmate” and “Movie Search” applications, Internet traffic is charged according to the valid Internet packages;

When using services included in “Yandex Plus” via proxy servers, VPNs or intermediary sites, the cost of traffic is paid according to the cost of existing Internet packages, or the traffic is deducted from the balance of the existing Internet package provided for everything;

Activation of the Yandex Plus service is carried out only via the MyUztelecom application.

A subscriber may have several active subscriptions to the Yandex Plus service. For example, the subscriber previously activated a subscription, payment for which is made via the subscriber's bank card. In this case, the subscription, which is paid by other methods, is managed on the Yandex Plus service website, and the subscription, which is paid via the balance of the subscriber number (or broadband login), is managed via the MyUztelecom application.

Within the framework of the subscription "Yandex Plus", not all the catalog of content on the service "Kinopoisk" is available

Access to the Bookmate service for subscription users is provided in accordance with the promotion rules

As part of the subscription, users are given a 10% discount on trips at Comfort and Business tariffs ordered using the Yandex Go application.

Prices include VAT.

Important to know!

By default, smartphones consume mobile traffic in the background: for system updates, application updates, for synchronizing data from widgets (weather, calendar, etc.) and social networks, as well as for analytics counters (Google, google-analytics.com, googletagmanager.com, gstatic.com, stats.g.doubleclick.net). Internet traffic to these destinations is charged according to the cost of existing Internet packages or from the balance of the existing Internet package provided for everything.

In order to disable Yandex subscription, you must do the following actions:

- 1) Go to the MyUztelecom application
- 2) Click on the Yandex Plus button
- 3) In the window that opens, click on the button: "Disable Auto Renewal"

After this, the user's current subscription will be active until the specified period. After expiration, the subscription is completely deactivated and the subscription fee will NOT be charged.
